History of the Class of 2008

We watched as others graduated: friends, older siblings, characters in movies. But we never thought this day would actually come. Four years in high school felt like a never-ending journey as freshmen, and senior year seemed a surreal fairytale that didn't actually exist. We never thought about the end until it finally came, hitting hard. Yet, we have all prepared for this next chapter in our lives. The lessons we have learned, the failures we have overcome, and the memories we have made constitute the people we are and the adults we will become.

The summer before we all started high school was perhaps the last carefree moment for the next four years to come. We didn't have to think about the vast amounts of schoolwork, the drama we would all face, or the day-to-day stresses of high school. Even then, we entered as freshmen, anxious but nervous at the same time. We no longer had to be escorted in lines, and we were introduced to a whole new world of bells. And, alas, we got to eat outside, experiencing the hoard of people, pushing in line to get their hands on Pizza Joe's calzones or Noonan's french fries. It took time to adjust, but the work grew less difficult, and making new friends got a little easier. We matured more in one year than we have ever before. Still, we were juvenile, and spent every weekend at the mall, the movies, or over a friend's house doing absolutely nothing. But it was those nights we did nothing, but everything at the same time, that which we bonded. It was nights like the one we huddled together around the television and watched the Red Sox win their first World Series in 86 years that were most memorable.

Sophomore year soon arrived, and a whole rush of events came flying our way. We started getting the hang of the monotonous schedule of high school. We started blending in to the sports, clubs, and classes we all chose to partake in. We were no longer the youngest of the school. Sophomore year was perhaps the busiest year, academically and personally. Remember the MCAS? Remember the growing popularity of Myspace? Remember the Axe that was sprayed into the vents? Remember the fire drill that led us outside to the storm of our lives? Still, sophomore year was not all sunshine and daisies. In April, we lost a fellow classmate and friend, Krystal Porier. Krystal proved that our class could ban together in difficult times and support one another. Losing such an amazing friend was hard for everyone, and Krystal will be forever remembered and missed. Sophomore year was about overcoming obstacles and embracing the unexpected.

The two previous years of our lives flew by quickly, but they were nothing compared to Junior year. It was as if it never existed. One blink of the eye and it was gone. We all stood fearlessly against looming college decisions and SAT's. We spent much of our time seeking the right schools and sitting in the guidance office, getting as much advice about life as possible. Most of us got jobs to pay for the cars we would begin to drive. And we finally began to have lives other than walking around Everett aimlessly. Weekends would be filled with nonstop fun, and the weekdays would be filled with chatter about the insane events over the weekend. And to top it all off, our class became Super Bowl Champs for the first time since entering high school. Eleventh grade was but the beginning of the end, our last year to be "kids" in high school.

Senior year. It's a phrase that cannot be thoroughly explained, because it holds many meanings and interpretations. Our senior year was about change...again. We had the privilege of spending our last year in a new school, but a new high school meant confusedly looking around for classes. It meant not eating outside for lunch. It meant strict rules. The negatives seemed to outweigh the positives, but we fought through as a class. We fought for the once expected day of pure silliness, Senior Dress-up Day, and we won. Nevertheless, we all buckled down and got our last adjustments to college applications and essays done. After that, it was a breeze. From Spring Break and Senior Luau to Prom and Graduation, it was all about relaxing and having a great time before leaving and going to college.

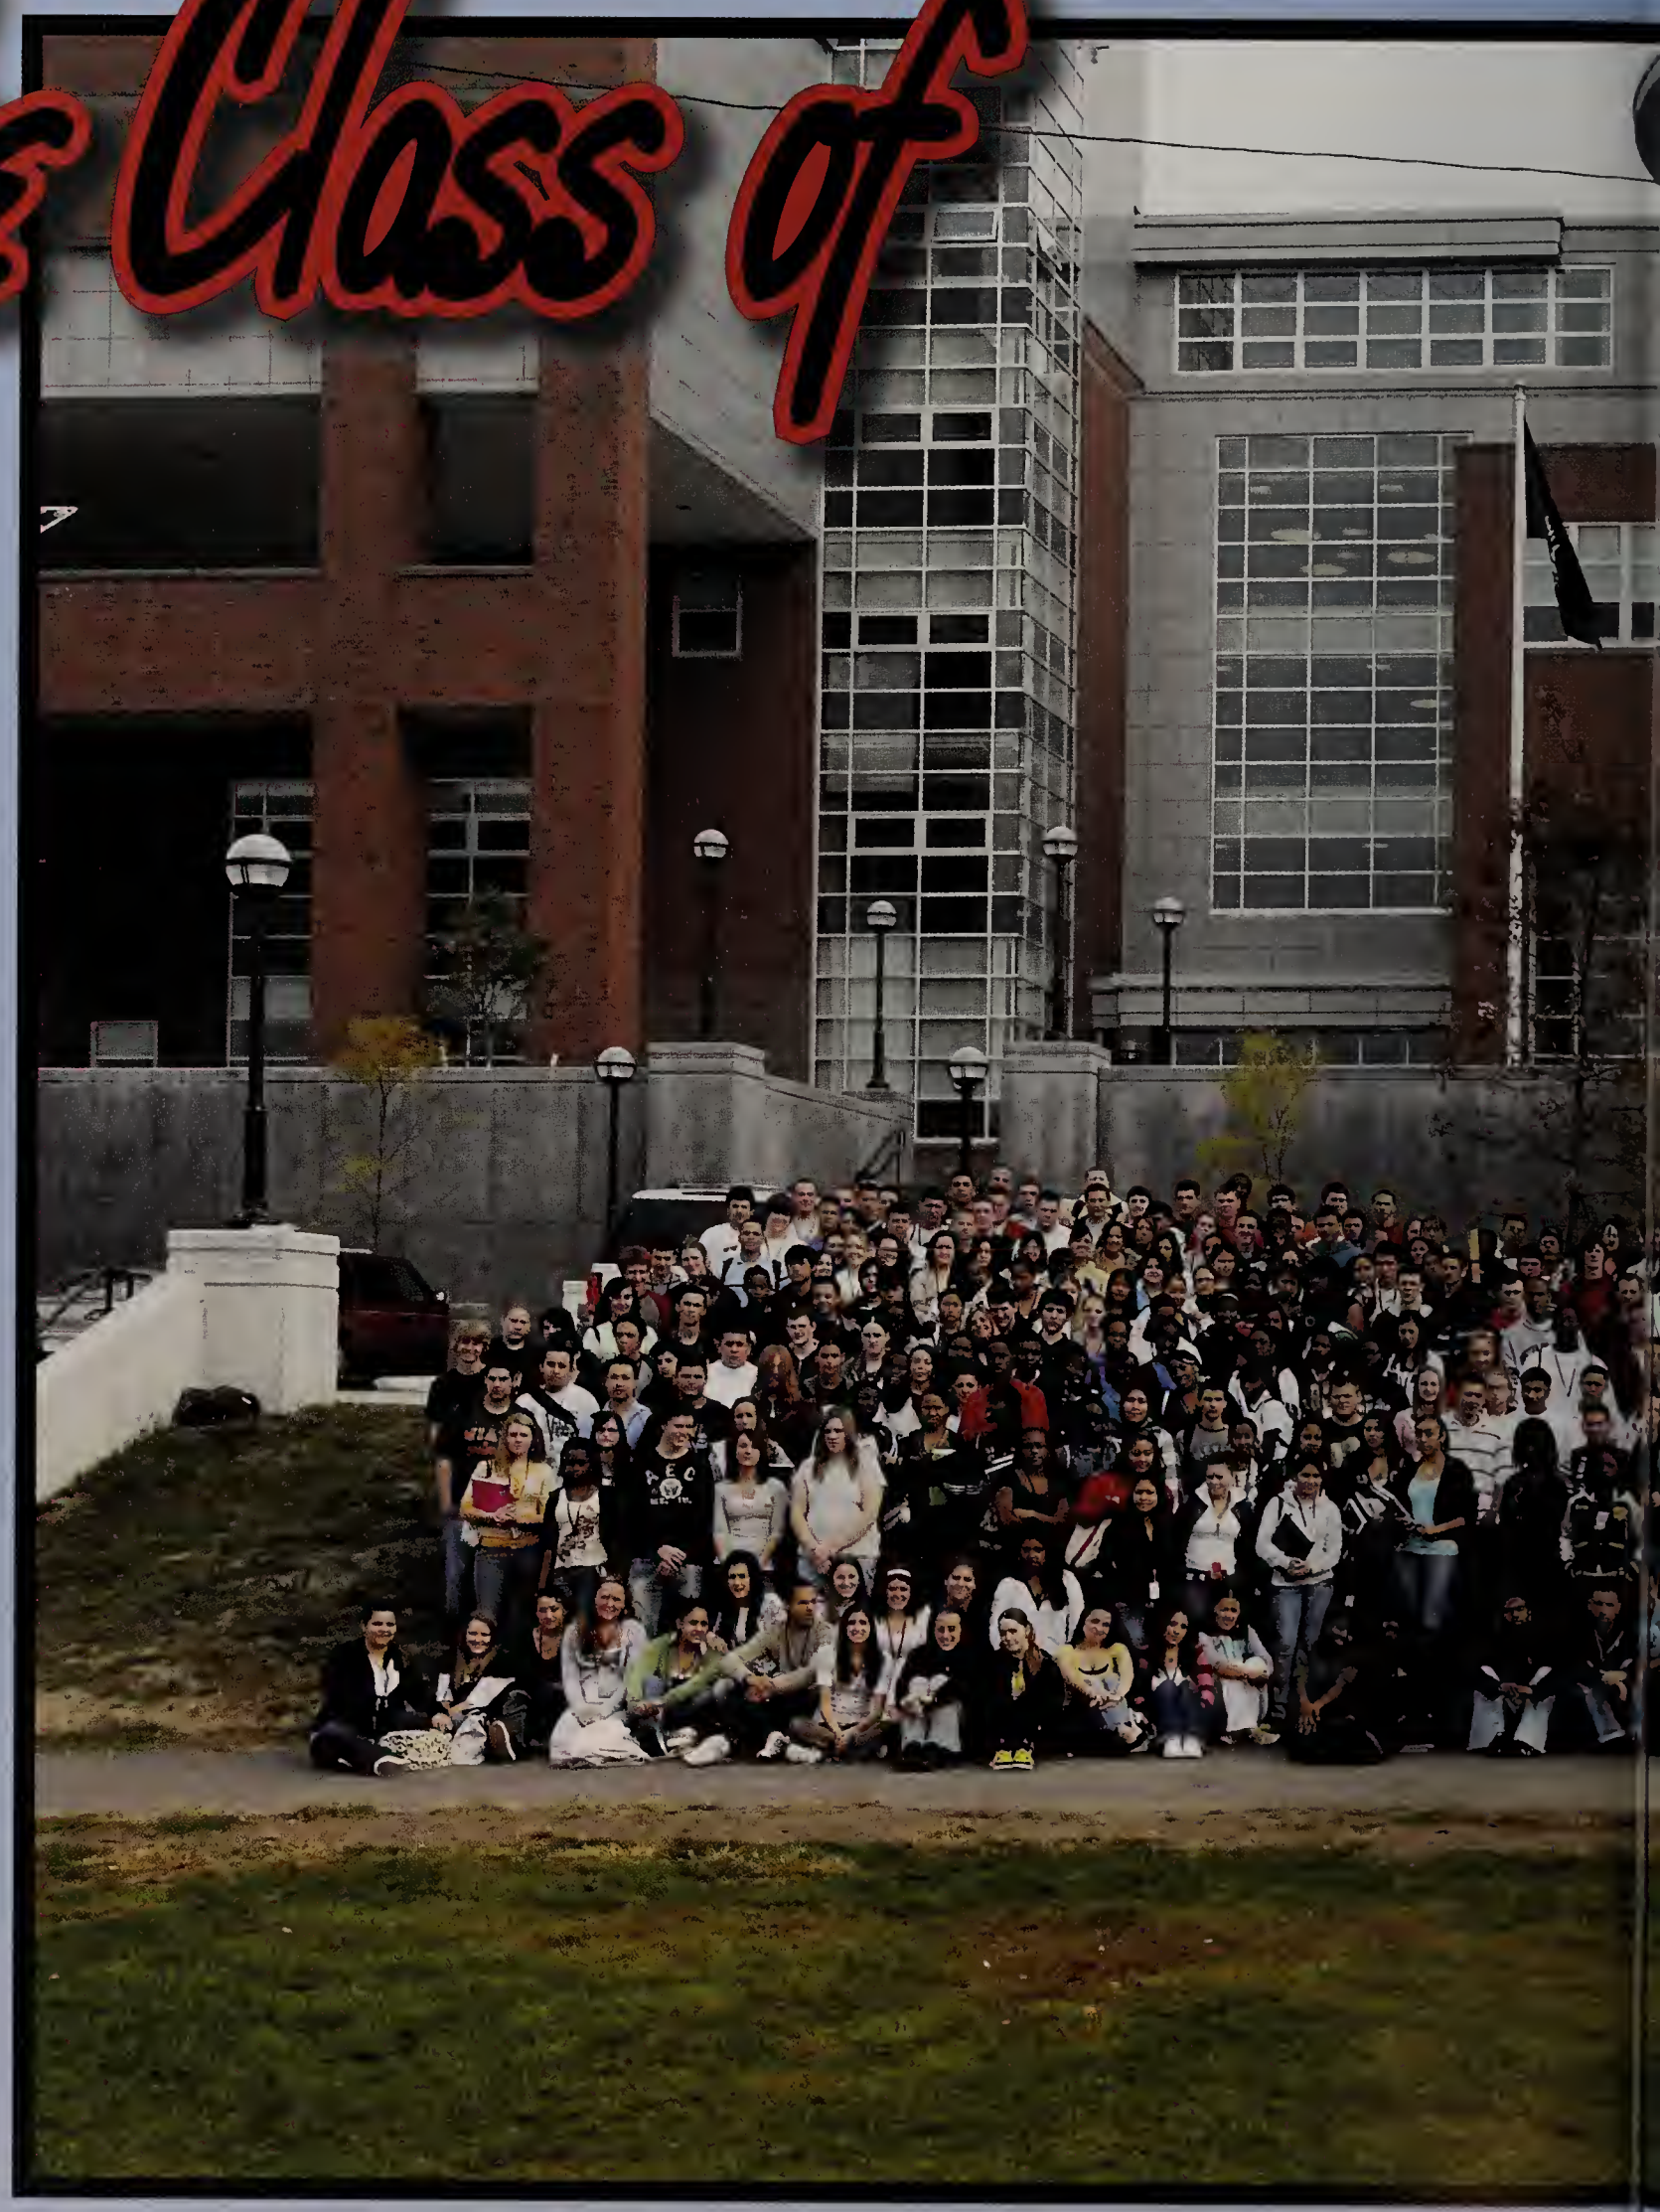

High school has been a compilation of different emotions and experiences, ultimately molding into a large mass of memories. As we look back, we can honestly proclaim ourselves as strong, positive individuals. We experienced 9-11, the effects of Global Warming, and the Iraq War, but these events never hindered our progress. With the lessons we have learned, we are all ready to breach the real world as adults. We all know that life will not be as easy as skipping class at the old school, but we are all prepared for whatever it is we choose to become. We will move on from "high school," but we will take every waking moment we have spent with the same classmates for the past four years and cherish them, for they will never be had again. We will never take these four years for granted because they were the building blocks for the success our futures hold.

Mark Schwahn, in regards to graduating, once wrote, "Now is the time for us to shine, the time when our dreams are in reach and possibilities, vast. Now is the time for all of us to become the people we always dreamed of being. This is your world. You're here. You matter. The world is waiting."

To the class of 2008, congratulations and good luck in all your endeavors. The world is waiting.

Student Life

Student life can be looked upon in differe ways. Whether you are a serious student, ded cating hours of study, concentrating on getti into a top notch college, or someone just tryin to pass MCAS, graduate, and get on with their life, we all have memories we take from our years at Everett High School (both old and new).

Making our way from naïve freshmen entering the old school on Broadway to becoming seniors entering the new and improved EHS on the hill at Glendale Park we all went through it together. Starting our day at eight o'clock and then going from class to class for seven periods. We spent our studies in the library, going down to the voc, upstairs to business; we were guidance or nurses aides; we even skipped a class or two usually resulting in internal suspension. As seniors these options weren't available to us but we learned to like our study periods. We traveled this routine for four years, making friends along the way and sometimes losing them.

No one will forget fighting their way to Sonny's or Noonan's or Pizza Joe's to get there before everyone else, then eating in the usual spot with you friends. As the end of the day neared everyone waited impatiently for the 2:15 bell to ring. Everyone went their separate ways after school. Some of us to work, some of us to sports teams and some of us to the many clubs that were offered to us.

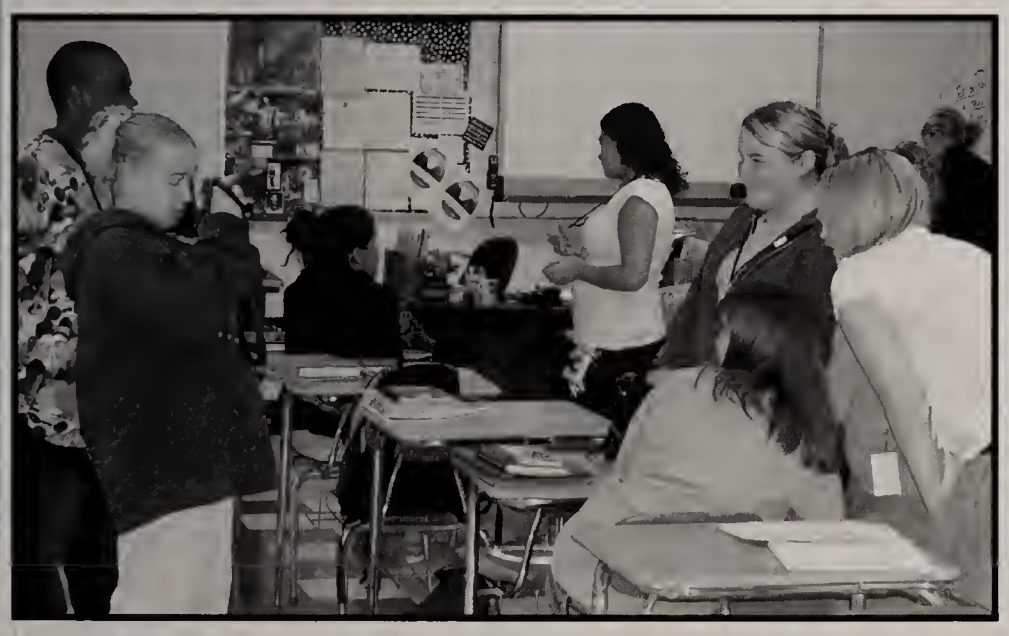

Starting out as Freshmen and progressing to Seniors we changed so much in the way we looked as well as our attitudes and our personalities. We all remember our first day as freshmen in the old high school and now many of us prepare for going to work, to college, or in some other direction. In any case we will always remember these past four years full of an array of memories. We certainly will never forget the variety of teachers and the many friends we have encountered in the halls and classes of Everett High School #1 and now Everett High School #2. Remember the times we laughed, the times we fought, and even the times we cried. Our four years in Everett High "Schools" are irreplaceable. I hope they were full of good memories for all.

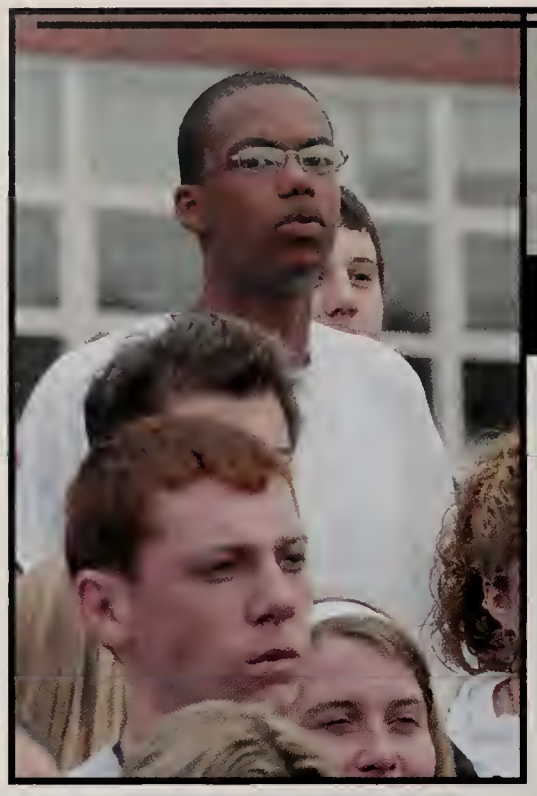

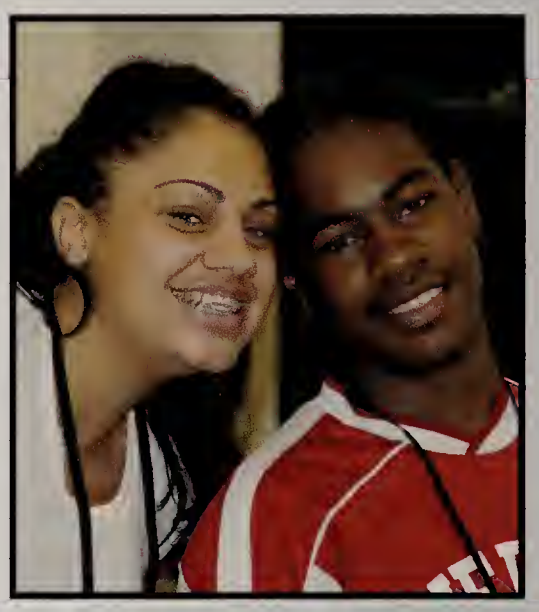

Student Life

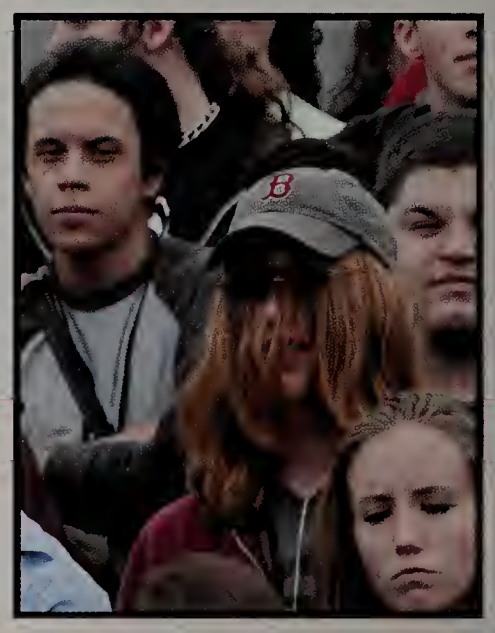

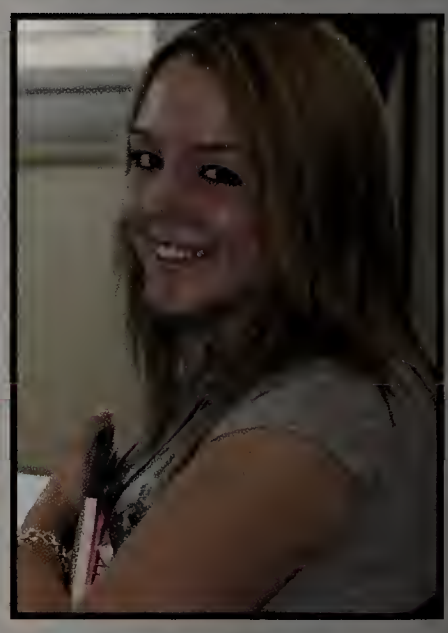

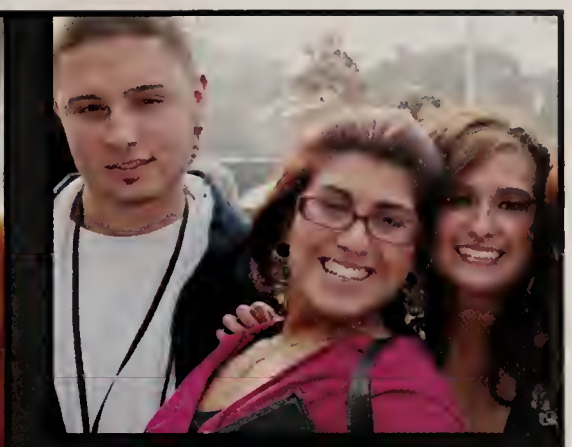

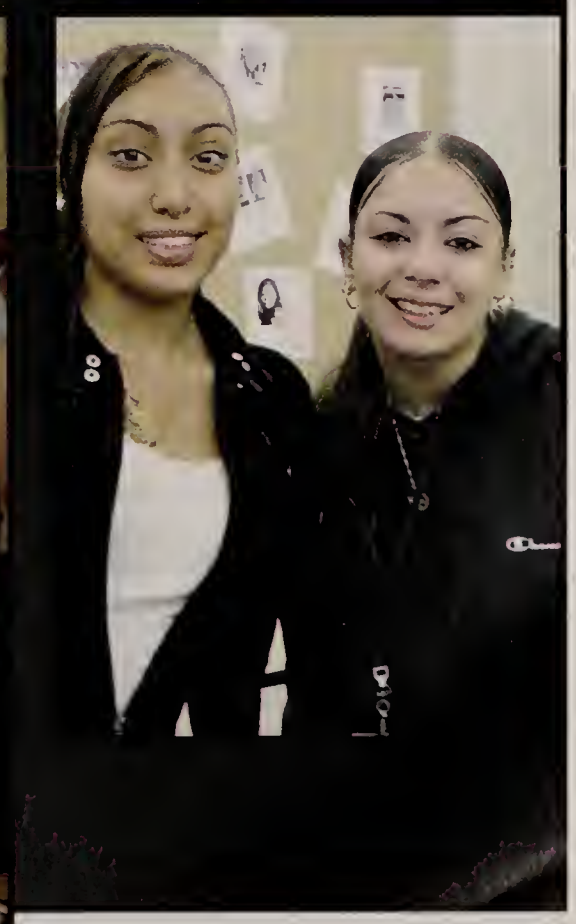

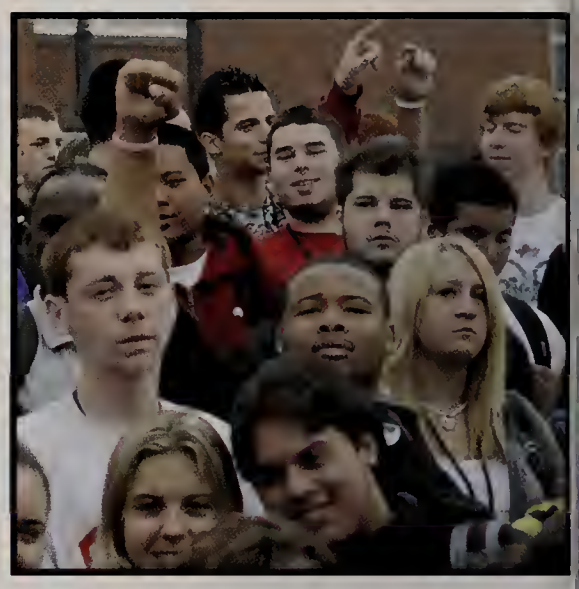

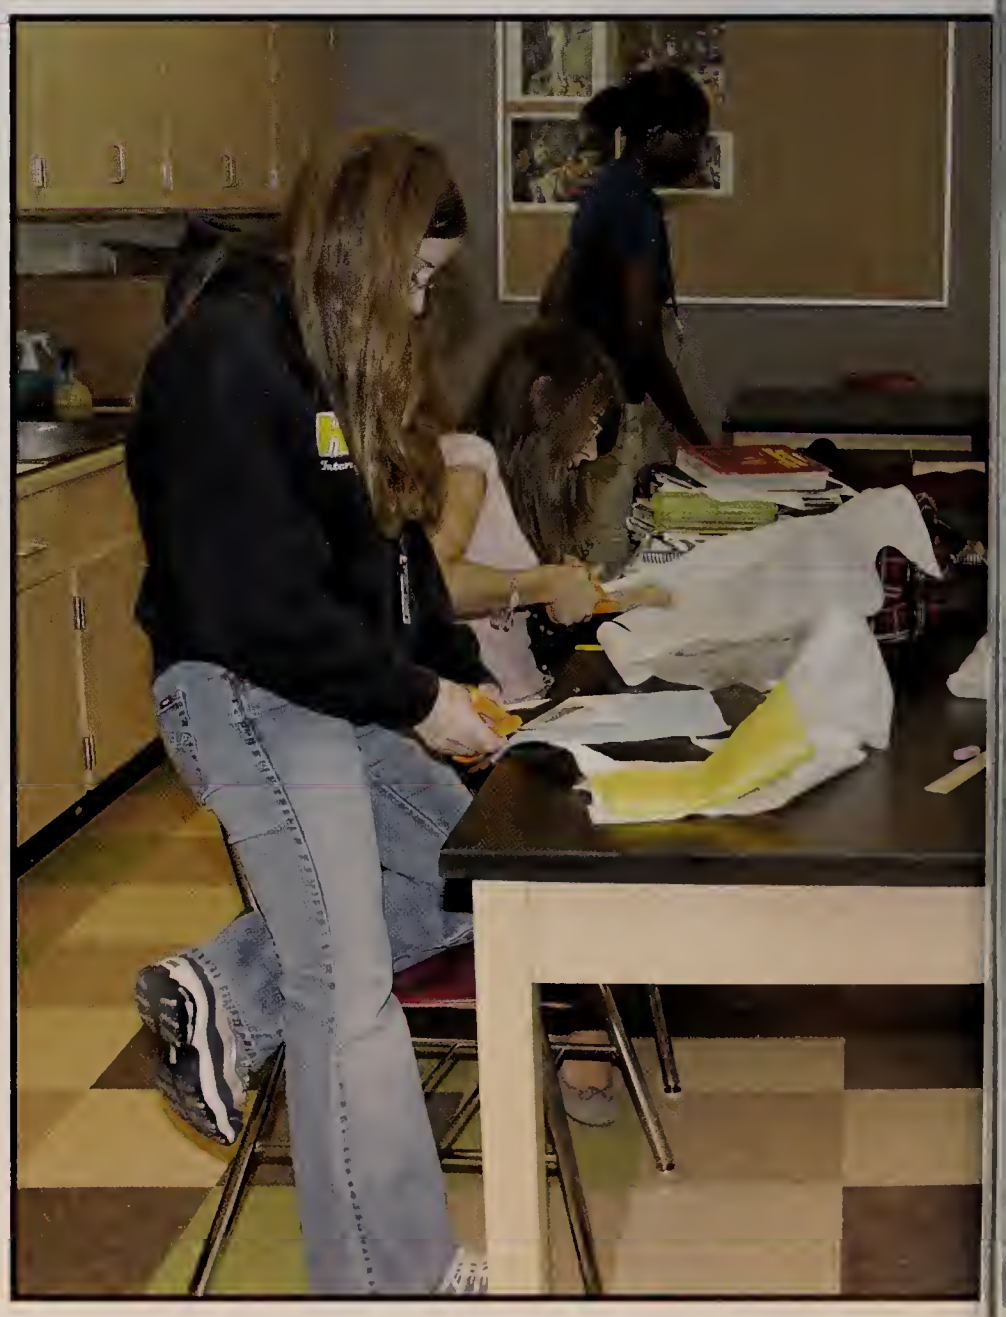

Dedicated to

Mr. Frank Amoroso

On the occasion of his retirement, his fellow colleagues and the senior class wish to express their appreciation for Mr. Frank Amoroso: a dedicated teacher, a thorough professional, and an even better man. Blessed with an easy manner and a love for teaching, Mr. Amoroso was an inspiration to his students, always present to lend support, and a model for young teachers and students alike. While it will be difficult for us to envision a school day without him, we wish him well. He will always be in our thoughts.

Best wishes for a long, happy and healthy life!

Special Events

As we watched the upperclassmen leave in a torrential downpour for the Junior/Senior Prom we could only hope that our Semi-Formal would not turn out the same way. It was June 16th, 2006, and the hectic day was just beginning. We anxiously waited for the big night to begin. As the limos pulled up girls were outside in their beautiful dresses with their hair and makeup done. The boys were dressed in button up shirts and the smell of cologne lingered in the air. We arrived at Angelica's and couldn't wait to take pictures. We were seated at tables and just as we were about to eat the Cha Cha Slide began to play. Everyone ran to the dance oor for the rst song of the night. From the Cha Cha Slide to Lean'n and Rock'n with Dem Franchise Boys we never left the dance f loor. Finally, the Semi had come to an end. We all left to continue onto after parties and more fun. The Semi left us all with unforgettable memories and an even greater anticipation for prom.

Semi-Formal

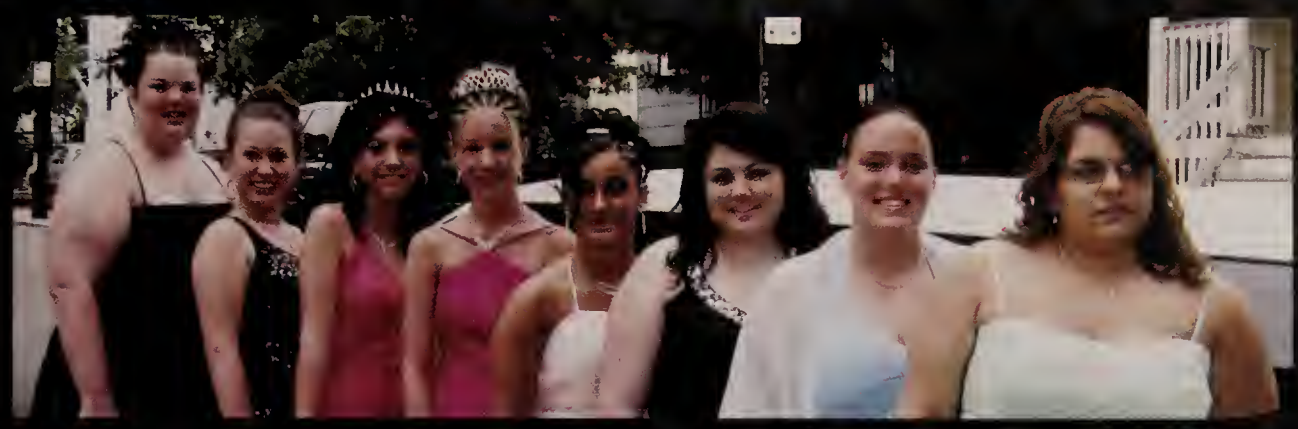

Semi-Formal

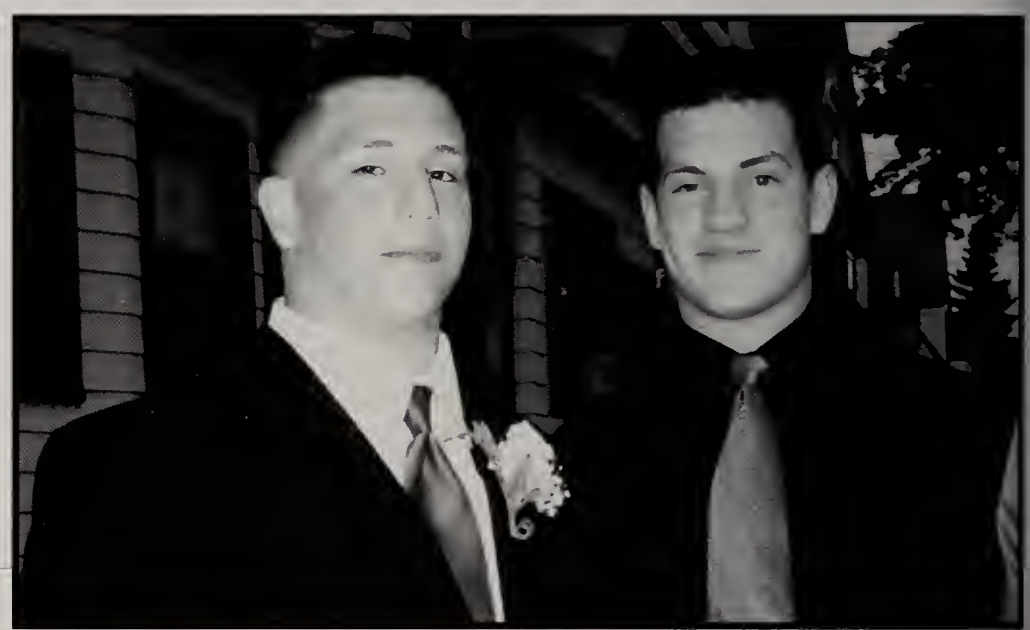

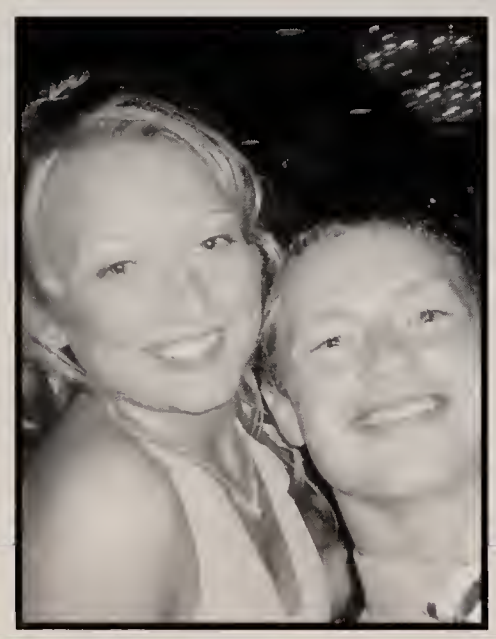

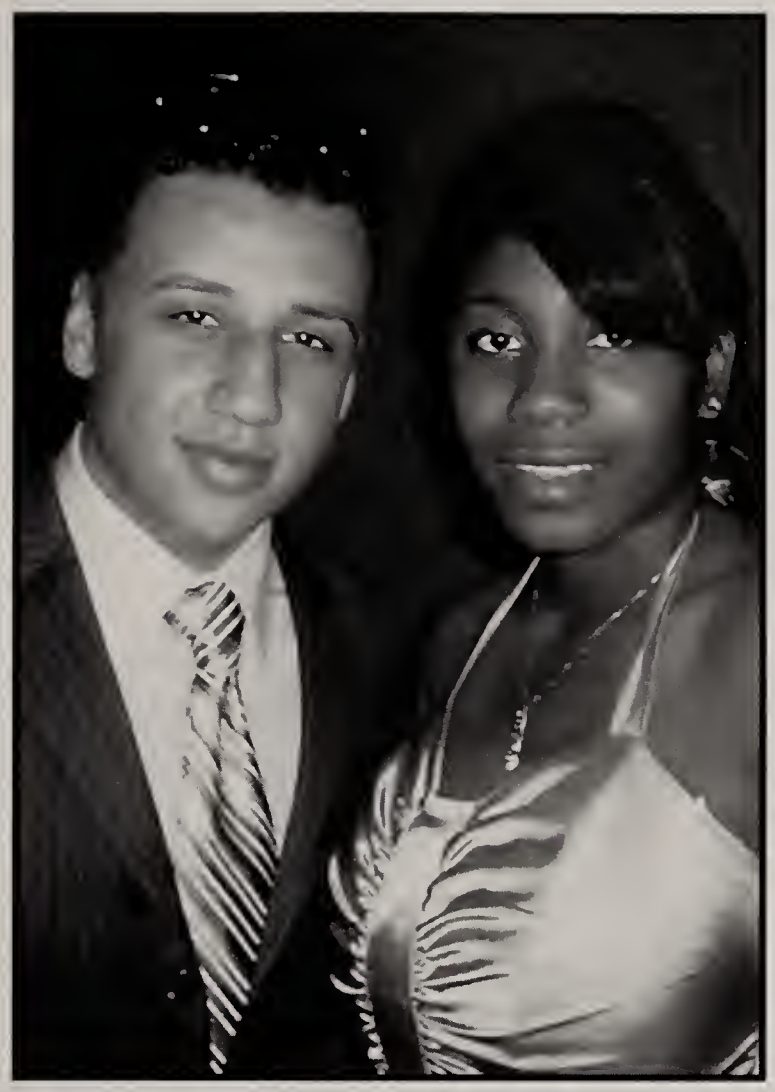

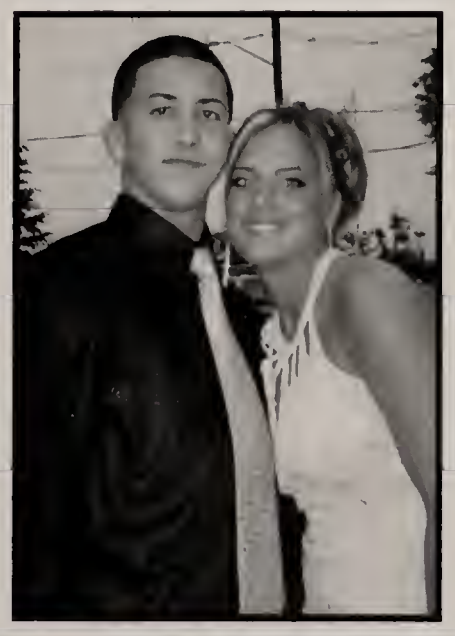

The Prom !!!!

Our Junior Prom was an event we had been anticipating for as long as we could remember. May 25th, 2007 arrived and we finally felt like upperclassmen and were able to get dismissed at 10:30. We left the building laughing at the fact that the freshman and sophomores were stuck in their classes while we were getting ready for one of the most exciting nights of our lives. We arrived in Boston at the Hilton Hotel in our limos, but some of us had been lucky enough to drive ourselves. We stepped into the revolving doors and proceeded to the main lobby where we checked in. We took the escalators up to the floor that was ours for the night. The girls looking gorgeous in their gowns and the boys looking handsome in their tuxedos stunned us.

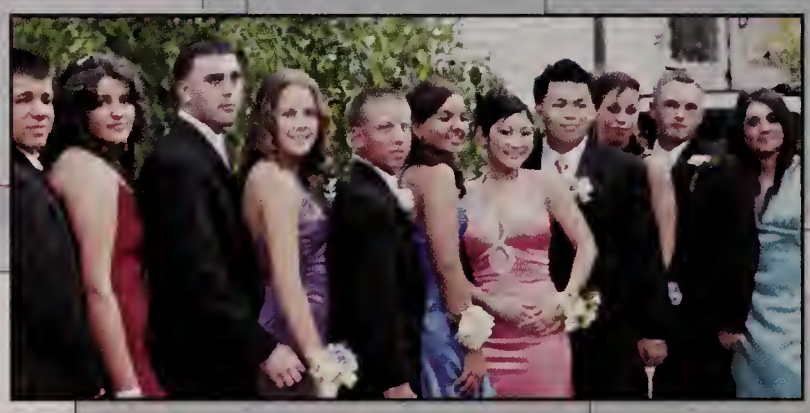

With bright smiles on our faces we began to take pictures waiting for the ballrooms to open. After dinner we moved into the grand ballroom to begin dancing. We were given glow sticks that added more fun to the night. We started to check in our items such as tuxedo jackets, shoes, and purses. We had sore feet and sweaty faces, but isn't that what prom is about? We looked like celebrities and danced all the way up until the last song of the night. When the night ended we left the hotel imagining what we would look forward to next year at our senior prom!

IN LOVING MEMORY OF KRYSTYL K. POIRIER
September 29, 1989-April 8, 2006

The class of 2008 would like to take this opportunity to honor Krystyl Kathleen Poirier. Sadly, due to a drunk driver Krystyl was killed on April 8th, 2006. The loss of our friend has had a profound effect on the members of our community, school, friends, and of course her family. Krystyl touched many lives with her vibrant personality and kind heart.

On the day of her funeral, the whole city seemed to stop. The moment in which the funeral procession passed by on Broadway everyone from schools to businesses stopped in order to pay their respects. The entire city felt the impact of this senseless act and united to support Krystyl's family.

Due to her love for cooking Everett High School now sponsors the Krystyl K. Poirier Culinary Scholarship. In addition to the scholarship, state and city officials along with the help of friends and family, initiated the bill that changed the nameless highway, to Krystyl's Way, where the tragedy occurred.

Although Krystyl is no longer here with us, she will never be forgotten. She has left a permanent handprint on our hearts.

My favorite memories would be just hanging with my friends...It doesn't happen too much anymore. Football 2007 Championship Season !!!

The 2007 addition added another chapter to a storied football tradition in Everett. The Crimson Tide boasted a remarkable 13-0 perfect season, the schools first since the fabled 1913 squad. Led by 13 seniors, the Crimson Tide with an overpowering offense (37pts. per game) and a staunch defense (8pts per game) were a team of destiny.

Captains Dan Izzo, Joe Baldachinno, Pat McGrath, Nick Christiano and Issac Johnson provided excellent leadership all season. With big shoes to fill, the 2007 Crimson Tide took on all opponents. Beating quality teams like Xaverian, Leominster, Cambridge, B.C. High and Dartmouth, the Tide proved that they are amongst the elite teams in the United States.

Superbowl CHAMPS

Participating in one of the most thrilling school boy SUPERBOWL football games, Everett secured their place in history with a thrilling victory in the State Championship game. Battling not only the frigid temperatures but also the nerves of playing at Gillette Stadium, the boys from Everett were able to outlast their counterparts in Overtime for a 36-28 victory. This is the second consecutive title and fifth since 2000.

Football CHEERLEADING

The Greater Boston League first place cheerleaders.

2007 season were led by captains Nicole Fiore, Brianna Martinelli, and Lauren Dell Isola, along with seniors Jayme Sweeney, Jessica Nelson, Jillian Palladino, and Kayla McFarland. The cheerleaders competed during the season and took home two trophies. The girls finished first in the GBL and 2nd in regionals, bringing them to the state championships. The experience of competition as well as back to back state football titles was unbelievable for the girls especially cheering at Gillette Stadium. The senior girls have great memories of their last season. They wish good luck to all returning cheerleaders and also thanl Mrs. Dib and Mrs. Carlock for everything they have done to make this year a fun and successful experience!

The boys 2007 soccer season was a season that had many positive experiences. Although the team did not make the tournament, there was a vast improvement from the previous year. Every game was a close game and none of the players ever stopped working. Though the team was very young and somewhat inexperienced, their never-quit attitude was the one thing that made them an enjoyable team to coach. They will continue to work hard to get better to make another huge step for next season.

The seniors will be greatly missed next year. They sacrificed and did an astounding job throughout their four years at Everett High. If they work as hard as they did on the field they will continue to do great things.

BOYS SOCCER

GIRLS SOCCER

The young and improving Everett girls soccer team had a challenging season. Although the overall record does not show the teams vast improvement, the Everett girls spirit remains high.

Senior captains Lady Martinez and Lorrayne Rocha lead the team both on and off the field. Both captains were truly dedicated to the team and inspired younger players to do the same. Great team spirit and good sportsmanship from seniors Jessika Rodrigues and Ruby Cardenas helped to inspire the team throughout the season.

FIELD HOCKEY

The 2007 Field Hockey team was led by seniors Jess Westgate and Shaina Benjamin. Althogh they struggled putting the ball in the net, the defense and Shaina, had tremendos saves against powerhouses like Waltham and Fenwick. Capt. Jessica Westgate was a threat on the offensive line with her exceptional stick work. Shanice Byno was a key player with an exceptional attitude, playing any position the coaches asked of her. Molly showed a wonderful disposition, earning respect from her teammates, coaches, teachers, and administrators alike. The 2008 Field Hockey team and coaches will miss these young women and we wish them the best in their future endeavors.

GOLF

The 2007-2008, co-ed golf team was lead by junior captain Alec Bellante and freshman captain Matt Huse. Two first year seniors Brett Johnson and Steve ramunno played in many matches this year and their contribution as determined and dedicated players will be missed. Brett played in the #3 position while Steve was able to play several matches in the #7 position. They proved to be fine leaders for the young team. Returning letter winners were William Donahue, Mike Russo, Paul Gianatassio, James Carr, Eric Russo, Chris Pothier, Anthony Montenero, Jessica Chaves, Stephanie Chaves, and Michelle Zullo.

A highlight in the season was for both Alec Bellante and Matt Huse were elected to the GBL All Star team. The returning players are looking forward to the upcoming season with enthusiasm.

Volleyball

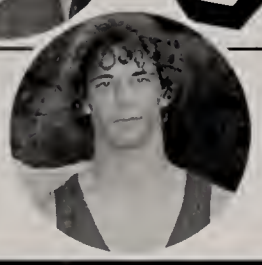

The Girls Volleyball team had its most successful season in years, finishing with a .500 record in the GBL. They were one point away from qualifying for the state tournament. Senior captains Lorena Valadares, Cara Woodward, Courtney Willis and Amy Vietro led the squad to seven victories, sweeping Somerville, Revere, Malden, and defeating tournament bound Medford 3-0. All four were strong and accurate servers, tenacious defenders, and leaders off the court. Lorena, Amy, and junior Handressa Da Silva were named league all-stars.

Cross Country

The Boy's Cross Country Team was led by senior Capt. Marc Canillas and senior Aaron Burke. Marc was the top finisher for Everett in 5 consecutive dual meet competitions. He won a non-league dual meet against Chelsea and he also won the Everett Homecoming Hustle for his age group running his fastest 5K time of 18:07. Aaron had excellent performances consistently holding a second place finish for Everett in many of the meets. Adding to the teams performance this season were seniors Josh Torres, Ryan Delgado, and Arthur Lebedev. Ryan's debut season proved to be his best as he improved consistently. All of the seniors led the underclassmen team members.

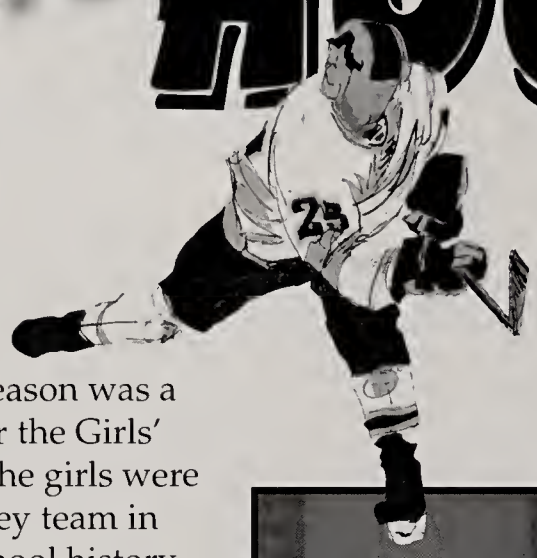

The Girl's Cross Country Team was paced by junior Capt. Alicia Knight. Alicia was the top finisher for Everett in all but one meet. Alicia along with fellow Capt. Rebekkah Porter will lead the underclassmenteam in the upcoming season.

girls HOCKEY

The 2007-2008 season was a historical one for the Girls' Hockey Team. The girls were the second hockey team in Everett High School history to win a league title. The last title was won by the boys in 1970. The girls also made history with an undefeated record in the GBL/NEC and an overall record of 16-3-2. This was the best Girls' Hockey record in the program's six year history. This was also the first time in school history that a hockey team hosted a state tournament game.

GBL / NEC CHAMPIONS 2008 !!!!!!!!!

This year's team was lead by three senior captains; Jessica Westgate, Molly O'Neill, and Kayla Irgens, all of whom had an outstanding senior season. Westgate ended the year with six shutouts and a 1.05 GAA. Irgens had her best offensive year with a total of 10G and 11A for a total of 21 points. Molly O'Neill became the first girl in the program's history to have started playing hockey as a freshman and be a full time starter for her junior and senior year. These three girls were the last to have played with anyone from the 2002-2003 inaugural team. Thanks for a phenomenal season! You will be missed.

Boys Hockey

The hockey team was in rebuilding mode during this season. The team graduates just two seniors Peter Chairello and Stephen Ramunno. These two student athletes captained a very young and inexperienced team. Although the record did not show the hard work and effort put in by the team, they did show improvement as the year progressed. Led by their Captains the team eliminated Medford from the state tournament with a thrilling 2-1 victory late in the season. This also marked the first victory over the Mustangs in ten years. The team then battled Arlington to a 0-0 tie in the last match up with the Spy Ponders, as they leave the Greater Boston League. These two games gave the Tide a glimpse to the future and showed what hard work, discipline and dedication can do. Ther message from the seniors to their young teamates is clear, in order to get betterthe returning players must strive to become better students and athletes. If this is done no matter what the record, you are a winner.

HOCKEY CHEERLEADING

A team of determination and pride led by captains Jessica Miller and Brittany Maiuri along with seniors Alycia Carangelo and Randi Cutlip had an amazing year. Never losing spirit the girls supported the boys through every game whether win or lose. After an uplifting end to the previous year, the girls had to work hard to maintain their state title. With a headstart at placing 1st in the GBL's the girls worked hard for their next competition in which they hoped to take home yet another trophy and have another state title. With only one year of competing experience the girls took advantage this year to push their capabilities to the limit. The team had yet another successful year which they ended with great dignity. The departing seniors would like to wish the best of luck to all future hockey cheerleaders and players.

Semifinalists

The 2007-2008 Boys Basketball Team finished their first season at the new Everett High School with an impressive list of accomplishments. Along with their 19-2 (13-1 GBL) record came a second consecutive GBL title and a Div. 1 N Semifinal appearance. In what was an exciting contest the Everett five came up a few points short to a strong Lowell team.
The leadership of GBL MVP Isaac Johnson will be missed as he takes his talents to Boston College. Also providing excellent senior leadership this year were Sean Cronk, Tony Michel and Steve Charles.
The Tide has built a positive outlook to next season due to the talents of returning GBL allstars Diovanni McCloud, Jim Noel and team MVP Jerome Cohen. These three and experienced returners Kyon Watkins, Nick Brown, Rodman Noel and Ricky Thurin bring play making ability, and defensive intensity to what will surely be another run at the title. Undoubtedly the Tide will once again rise!!!

winter TRACK

The Boys Indoor Track Team was led by senior co-captains, Steven Poste and Jehu Cimea. Steven placed 1st in three dual meets and 2nd in three dual meets in the shot put. He placed third in the GBL League meet and had a personal best throw of 43'10.5". He was voted as a GBL All-Star for the shot put. Senior James Curtis also had a solid season in the shot put equaling the season best of Steven at 43'10.5". James placed 5th at the GBL league meet, Jehu Cimea was the top 300 and 600 yard sprinter for the Crimson Tide. Although hampered by an injury late in the season, Jehu placed 5th in the 300 meter run, and 3rd in the long-jump at the GBL League meet.

Junior Alan Dancewitz and Sophomore Xavier Ortiz consistently had solid performances throughout the entire season in the high jump and hurdles. Alan was voted as a GBL All-Star in the hurdles as he placed second in the event at the GBL League meet. Xavier stepped up and led the 50 yard sprint crew every meet after suffering the loss of a senior 50 yard sprinter Pierre Marcelin due to injury early in the season.

The Girls Indoor Track Team was led by senior Cara Woodward. Cara led the Crimson In dual meet competition in both the hurdles and high jump. She was undefeated in the high jump this season and jumped a personal best of 5'2". She was voted a GBL All-Star in this event. Co-Captain Amy Vietro had great performances in the hurdles and also helped the team competing in her debut season in the high jump. Junior Joanne Cimea was voted a GBL All-Star in the 300 yard dash and Sophomore Tracey Nicholson, and Freshmen Sashae Walls and Shannell Diaz also had a major impact on the team's success in the sprinting events.

SPRING TRACK

2007-2008

The Everett High School Track Team's spring season was full of good memories both on and of the track. As a team, we bonded together to get through hard workouts and tough races. Individually, many of us achieved personal records and improved our throws, jumps, and times at every dual meet. Many people qualfied for the state meet and achieved Greater Boston League all-star awards. It was a fun season overall, with a lot of improvement noticed in our performances from last year. We want to thank the seniors for all their leadership and let them know they will be truly missed!

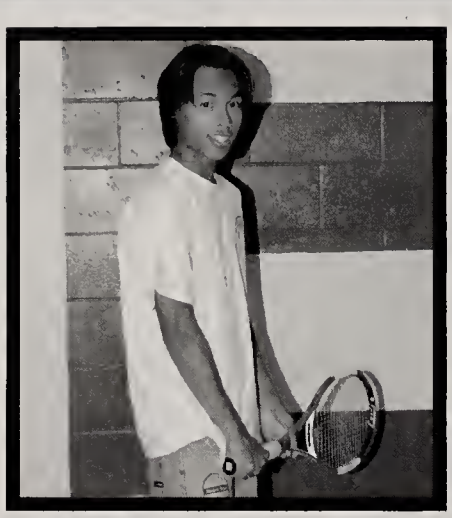

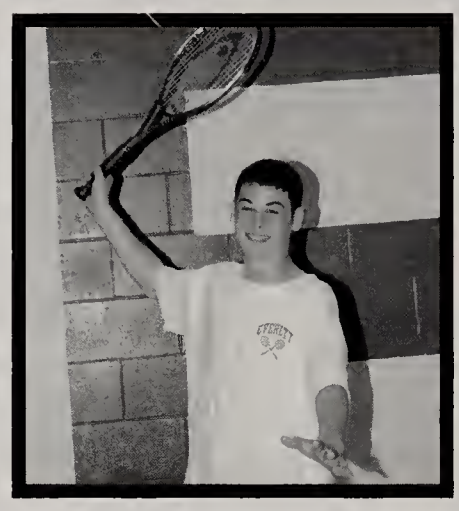

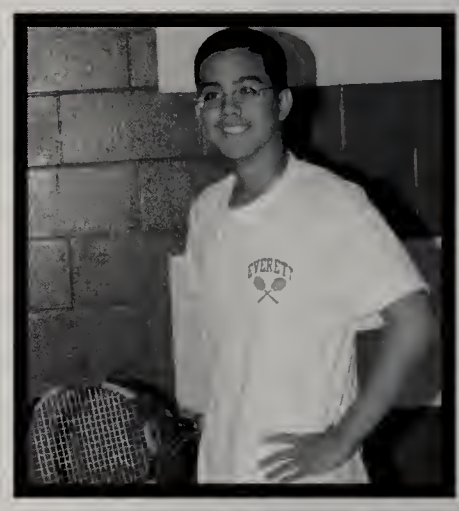

Boys Tennis

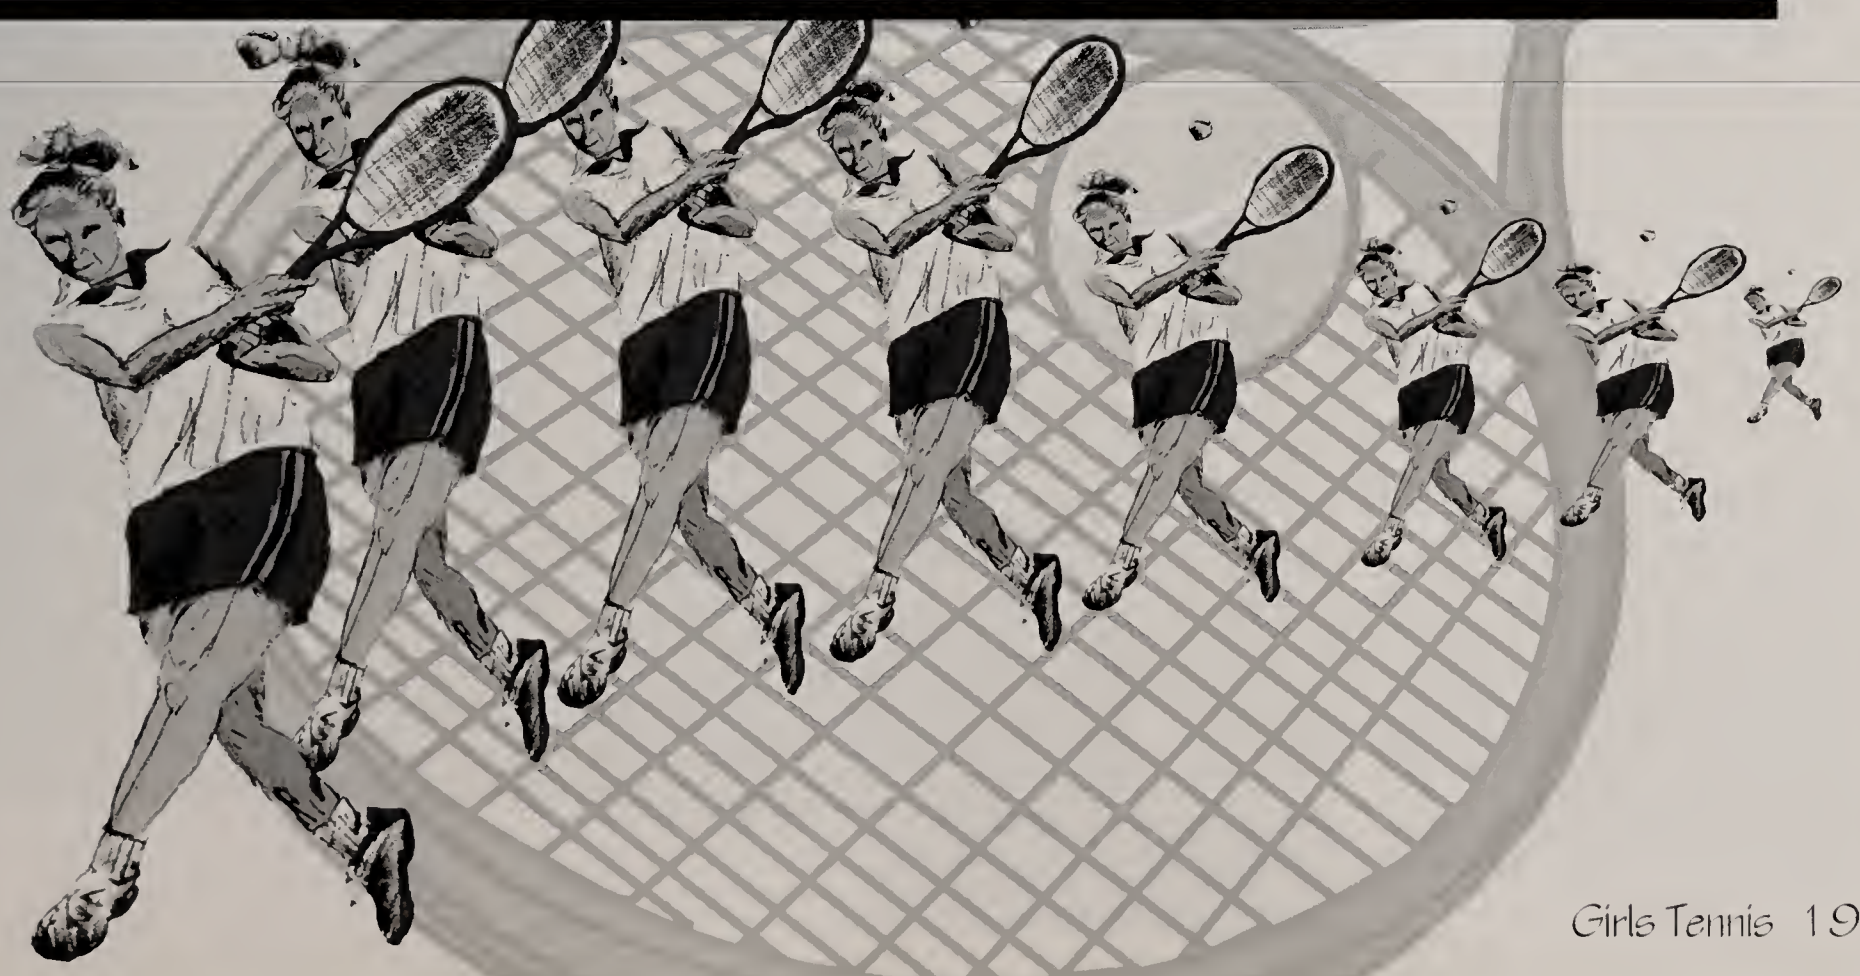

2007 Girls Tennis

The 2007 Crimson Tide Baseball team finished the season with a record of 9-11 and fell one game short of qualifying for the state tournament. However, Coach D'Agostino's team more than doubled their win total from the previous season and went out on a high note defeating Revere in extra innings.

The list of players returning from last season's team is an impressive one as many underclassmen gained valuable experience during the 2007 season. Seniors Jon Cabral, Richie Welch, Justin Spinelli, and Shawn Arias will lead the way as the Crimson Tide look to compete in the post season for the first time since 2005's GBL Championship season.

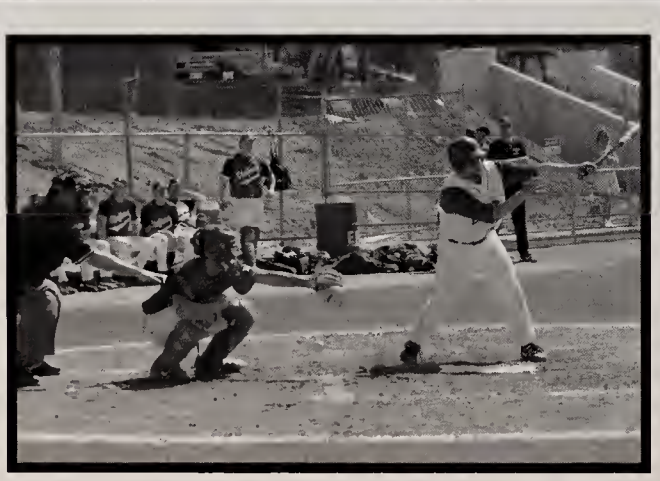

BASEBALL

"Tide looks for tournament berth"

BASEBALL

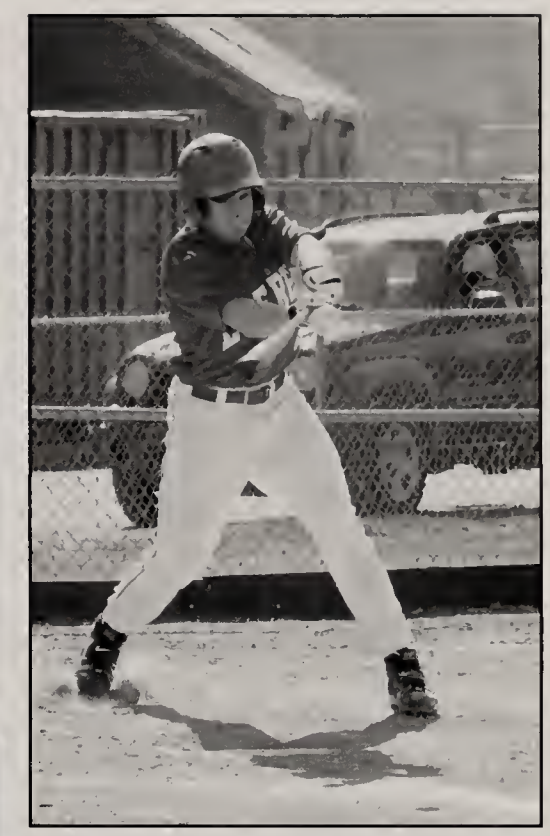

SOFTBALL

After making a strong run thru the GBL, the 2007 team came up one inning, one run, one error short of capturing the league title. The senior loaded team did an outstanding job a season paced by the stellar battery of Burley and McGrath, and the fielding skills of Concannon, Powers and Olivera. The team posted a record of 15 -6 and lost a close hard fought game to Billerica in the tournament. The returning senior group, although fewer than last season, look to be exciting. They include the strong hitting Nicole Fiore and Sam Bruce as well as Lauren Marino and Michela Schlosberg. The seniors will be supported by excellent pitching in Stef Chaves and Michelle Zullo as well as the powerful bat of infielder Laura Stanfield.

MARCHING BAND
GOES TO FLORIDA

For the Seniors of the Everett Crimson Tide Marching Band, this fall season was an interesting one. First of all, the band welcomed two new Drum Majors, juniors Ceara Somerville and Tania Gelsomini, as well as Hilary Anderson, who helped the wind instruments. Scott Hiser, who gave the front ensemble percussion the instruction they missed out on, Pat Chagnon, who instructed the marchers and the visual aspect, Katie Galvin and Erin Reynolds, instructed the guard and improved the great flag and dance work. At the new high school, it wasn't long until the band got into their 6-9 Monday and Wednesday night practices with, of course, the usual Friday night football game. By the end of September, the band was on their competition fall circuit again. At most competitions we didn't win the first place spot, however, instead, won different captions. This season was great for percussionists and seniors John McCormack and Sebastian Rivas, percussion leaders, as well as Mary Thomas and Edgar Green , for the fact of bringing home almost every weekend the "Best Percussion Award" at Finals. After the season was over, the band played for the veterans at the Armory on Veteran's Day. Then there was Thanksgiving game, playoffs, and next stop Gillette Stadium and The Superbowl! After making history in the frigid weather on that fateful day, the band was able to play on the field. Now with football season out of the way, the Christmas concert was coming up as well the winter percussion season. To our brothers and sisters of the band that will be getting their diploma this June 2008, we say Thank You for your contribution and hard dedication these past years. we will all miss you and hope you stop by any future practices to revisit old memories friends.

For many, the drama club became an escape, a second family, and a new home. Freshman year featured the classic Crucible and Everett High's last musical, Annie Get Your Gun. Even though musicals came to an end, our following sophomore year was truly a year of new beginnings because of the new direction from Mr. Snipe, which led to a great comedy streak. The year kicked off with a bang, when our stars put on a hilarious tale of murderous old women in Arsenic & Old Lace, backed by an astounding two floor set with a built in stair case provided by our outstanding technical crew. Next came our student written comedy, Dearly Beloved and ended with the ground breaking rendition of Shakespeare's Midsummer Night's Dream. Incredible bonds were carried out through our junior year, although we unfortunately encountered the loss of our tech director, Mr. Philips, but we kept up with our comedy streak with our production of The Female Odd Couple.

Things started to get more serious with productions of No Exit and Murder Takes the Stage. Despite our new serious roles, behind the scenes remained full of fun and laughter and we kept up with our traditions like pulse and blister and the guest appearance of a rubber chicken. Unfortunately this year, our senior year, started off a little late due to the changing of schools. The drama club had a rebirth of new direction from the help of Mrs. Alexis and Mr. Walsh, along with a wealth of new and talented kids. Our production of Our Town has surely shown that the drama club will remain strong for years to come.
